This month was special in our ministry since most of my congregation are farmers. We used the farming season to measure our soul winning program. And to the Glory of God, our attendance increased from 40 to 60 this month. As a church we need to pray for our country Ghana as we are heading towards elections so that God will choose our leaders for us and for peaceful elections.

To the Glory of God, two members of our church named their children after me and my wife. This had rededicated our commitment towards the work of God at Adwafo.

I celebrated my 52nd birthday with my family and it was a moment of joy to me seeing all my kids and wife around me.

Bro. Kwame Baahene has been a member of our church about 2 months. Because of his love for God and with the obedience toward God's Word, he decided to officially register his marriage in the house of God. He decided to have an official church wedding. Praise God for that.

Bro. Aduma Atta has been a blessing to me personally and to the church also. His visitations, prayer, soul winning, are all a testimony for his love toward God.
