Dear Ministry Partner,

Thank you for your prayer for our family and ministry. At the beginning of February, the Lord gave me the opportunity to travel to Yangon for a conference. It was a time of spiritual rejuvenation and physical rest for me and my wife. The teachings, preachings, godly music, and sweet fellowship with other fellow servants of the Lord have been a huge blessing to us.

When we returned home, we spent much of our time coaching our three children for their final examinations. When they were done with their exams, I shared the gospel with them and did house visitation.

February has been mostly a time of spiritual recharging for me and my family.

Lord bless.

Faithfully,
AM1601
