Christmas presented us with the golden privilege of witnessing to unbelievers. Our church members delighted in purchasing and wrapping Christmas gifts for our Christmas evangelistic outreach. We used public transportation to reach out to them. There were 15 of us who participated in this outreach. We targeted the poor since they are more receptive to the gospel. As it may be true in many parts of the world, it is much more challenging to reach the rich with the gospel in our country. We distributed the gifts to unbelievers, which in turn gave us the privilege of sharing the gospel. Most of them listened attentively to our preaching. In addition to giving a short message of the gospel, we also distributed Christmas tracts because the Myanmar people are avid readers.

We praise the Lord for the nine souls that came to Christ during Christmas season. What a joy it has been to our church family to see these previous souls coming to Christ!

As it is customary here, we celebrated Christmas and New Year with all our church members at our church. We had several visitors. I had the privilege of preaching and challenging our church members with wonderful message of the birth of our Savior, and also a new year message helping them to make resolutions for the year.

Please pray for two of my children who will be taking matriculation examination during the month of March. This is a huge educational milestone in the lives our teenagers. The matriculation examination is like sitting on a fence; it will decide the future of our children as far as education and career are concerned. Answer papers from all over the country are checked at the central education department in the capital.

Hope that your Christmas was a blessed one.
Happy New Year,
