Dear Colaborer,

Thank you so much for your prayer and support for our ministry.

I thank God for working in the lives of our church members, who are becoming more and more thirsty for God's word, and also are growing in grace. Many of my church members have become active in evangelism, distributing tracts and witnessing one on one.

As the church members grow in Christ, Satan is also very busy attacking us. Recently, someone reported our church activities to the authorities, who summoned and interrogated me. We have not been told to move out, but if it is necessary, we may have to move out. Currently we worship at a rented apartment. We covet your prayer in all these matters. Please pray that the Lord will provide us our own plot of land where nobody can disturb us.

We plan to hold a two-day seminar on salvation and mission during the month of November. We expect about 50 people to attend. We covet your prayer for this as well.

Lord bless.

Faithfully,
AM1603
