Dear Co-laborer,

Greetings in the name of Christ!

During the month of April the Lord enabled me to conduct two different camps--one at my church and the other in Myitkyina, Kachin State. Most of my church members came to the camp. Our focused this year was on Christian life. I invited two other pastors to minister alongside me. Many of our church members testified of how the Lord has used the camp to draw them closer to Him.

During the last week of April, I flew to Myitkyina with two other pastors for the second camp. There were about 120 campers everyday for a week. It was so encouraging to me and my friends that most of the campers already knew Christ as their Savior. There were three who did not know the Lord as their Savior and we were privileged to lead them to the Lord. The church where we held the camp recently went through a split, and they needed much encouragement from the Lord. The Lord used His word through us to lift them up in Christ. On the last day of the camp, 50 people recommitted themselves to following Him faithfully and some of them to part-time and full time ministry.

Thank you so very much for your prayer and support.

Faithfully,
AM1604
