Dear Co-laborer,

Thank you so much for your financial and prayer support. I appreciate your prayers for our Christmas outreach. We spent two evenings proclaiming the good news of the birth of our Savior in the slum area. We presented a bottle of oil and a bag of rice to each family. We visited a total of thirty families. We sang some Christmas songs and preached for about five to ten minutes before giving them the presents. All of them welcomed us with huge smiles. Although we did not see anyone making profession of faith in Christ, the seed of the gospel has been sown. Our church has been doing children's ministry in this area as well; our Sunday school teacher visits there once a week and about 35 children regularly come to the class.

We celebrated Christmas with all of our church members at the church itself. It was a very blessed time for all of us. One December 23rd, I had the privilege of visiting a town called Bago for a special Christmas celebration; Bago was about two hours drive north east of Yangon, where I live. That was a special celebration because everyone that attended was an unbeliever. About 50 of them showed up. I was able to give a clear presentation of the gospel for three hours. After we left for Yangon, an eight grader came to the pastor of the church who invited me, and told him that on that day he clearly understood who Christ is (until then he didn't know anything about Christ!) and that he accepted Him as his personal Savior. Praise the Lord.

I trust that your Christmas was a special one. Again thank you for your support.

Faithfully,
