During the month of July I had the privilege of sharing the gospel with two families and a Buddhist girl. From Luke 16, the story of the rich man and Lazarus, I presented the gospel to them. Please pray that the Lord will use the seed of the gospel to touch their lives. I praise the Lord for a new family regularly that has been visiting our church for the past few weeks. The family consists of 6 members. I have also been witnessing to them. I want to request you to pray especially for our church apartment. We have been praying for a couple of years that the Lord will enable us to purchase the current apartment where we worship. At the same time we collect offering for the apartment every Sunday. It's been two years since we have started collecting the offering; most of our church members contribute generously, but since they have a very limited source of income, we are only at 3.3%. I also want to request you to pray for my health. Thank you so much for your financial and prayer supports.
