The Grace of God is still sustaining His own, regardless the circumstances. July has seen more of the Grace of our Lord in His service and our lives; glory be to His Name. In the face of calamities facing the Gospel, the message has a facile victory. Sometimes I wonder whether people truly understand and have genuinely received the Lord. They easily prayed the sinners prayer and profess faith in Christ. The Lord knows His sheep and surely, they will come to Him. Our responsibility is to plant or sow and leave the result to the Lord; whether they join our churches or not (Philippians 1:8). This is my encouragement in the Gospel's work. At times, it is frustrating when you do not see your fruit bearing or remaining. Thanks be to the Lord who edges us, through the Holy Spirit, to persevere.

Pray for the church continually, that members will be more dedicated and committed to the Lord's work. Pray for my family, especially my wife's health. Also for my country's economic stability and job opportunities.

The Lord richly bless, as you keep on supporting His work. We are greatly encouraged.

His servant,
Daniel Amoo
