On the 26th March, Prosper and I went out soul winning around my residence. We met Mr. Anane and his wife Elizabeth in their house. Elizabeth was excited to see me again because I had been to her house before with my wife. We could not preach the gospel to her because she was going out somewhere. I began to preach the gospel to Anane and his wife. Whiles I was talking, Elizabeth said, Pastor since you begun to speak, I realized what I have been taught in church concerning salvation is wrong though you are not done yet. Anane also said to me after his wife was done. He said I will stop attending the church of Pentecost because their preaching about salvation never make sense to me. Anane and his wife promised to come to church. God led us to two families due to your prayers. We urge that you will continue to pray toward having families in our church. Also, we will want you to pray with us for more labourers
