My family is doing very well. My wife expecting our new baby. We can't wait for that new member. We work in the ministry together and have fun together also. My son's mind has been filled with two things: church and soul winning. I am so thankful to God for my family. Bismark is the evangelist I met recently. After trusting Christ, Bismark has been growing amazingly. He comes to study the Bible with me almost every day. He comes to church and also goes out soul winning with me. He already knows how to witness. I met Isaac his friend this Saturday who would not profess works, only to find out that he was witnessed to by Bismark. Dominic has always proven to me that he is truly my disciple. He is a great soul winner. He loves to witness to people. He gets angry when he is asked to go to farm on Saturdays instead of soul winning. On my way to Bible studies yesterday, I passed by his house when he had just returned from school. He didn't even think of food but asked "Pastor, can I go with you to the studies?" And I quickly said "Yes." While I was teaching, I saw him busy writing in his book. I gave an on Sister Mary and how she was growing in the Lord and trying to bring her husband Mr. Boateng along to church. She found a job in a different town called Nkoransah. Before she left she told me the one thing she will miss a lot is my teachings. I recommended a Baptist church in the town for her, but she said this to me "I am hopping the pastor of that church will teach the same doctrine and nothing else." Then she said, "I left the Catholic church because you made it clear to me that I was lost." I decided last week to encourage our church with my preaching. I was filled with joy while I was preaching. Even people who don't like to speak in the church said Amen with excitement in their eyes till I was done preaching. I felt like a lot of people were healed and had new hopes in God. I am still encouraged with our Wednesday Bible studies on music. This gone Sunday Ibrahim, a converted Muslim followed me to my house for good music. Your prayers are working; God is bringing on our way more laborers. Continue pray Mary to find a new job around our church and back so that she can grow. Pray that we will get more people like Dominic and Bismark who are willing to grow. Pray for my wife as she look forward to having our new baby. Pray also that our ministry will grow both physically and spiritually.
