I met Obed a few weeks ago. He was busy at the time and could not speak to me. The following week he allowed me to talk to him and I was able to share the gospel with him. After he proceeded to apologized to me about not having the time to speak last week, he confessed that if i had not shared the gospel with him that he would have gone straight to hell. Obed has been such a blessing, he has not missed church since that day I was privileged to share the gospel with him. He has been faithfully attending church for three weeks straight now. Mr. Boateng is about 35 years old. He did not like attending church due to the noise of the drumming and dancing going on in his church. After speaking with Mr. Boateng, I gave him a personal invitation to attend my church with me as my guest. To my surprise someone had already recommended my church to him. Now that you have personally invited me, he said, i will come to visit. Since that personal invitation, Mr. Boateng has been faithfully attending "my church". A week ago my wife was not feeling well. She felt sick and wanted to go to the hospital for a checkup. When the results came back we were stunned at the results. The shock turned in happiness. The result from the doctor were, Mr. Aning your wife will be fine she is just suffering from morning sickness. Yes! we are having a baby
