Our ministry has been doing great recently. We are getting new people and the old ones are also growing in the Lord. Sister Mary, the lady I talked about in the last report is still coming to church faithfully. Anane, another convert mentioned in that report comes faithfully also. I started a Bible study on music two weeks ago. After teaching them what God's music is all about, e.g., psalms, hymns, and scriptural songs, Shadrack and Emmanuel came by my house with pen drives to get good music. Last Saturday at the soul winning meeting, I asked some of our soul winners to illustrate to us how they preach the Gospel to see if they were doing the right thing. I was very surprised how some of them had the plan in order and all the illustrations I have taught them. I can feel God's hand on our ministry. Continue to pray for more laborers. Pray for my family and the new baby we are expecting. Also, pray for Anane's wife Elizabeth and Mary's husband Boateng to come as well.
