I am thankful to the Almighty God once again for His blessings in my life and that of my family. I am also very thankful to God for Pastor Ken and his church for supporting us every month. We have been praying for you all as well as Brother TJ and the CORE Missions team. Many thanks to those of you who prayed for the success of the funeral of my wife's mother. Pastor Charles Osgood and Pastor Stephen Volante preached clear messages on Saturday and Sunday respectively. I believe many souls were saved at the funeral. To God be the glory!

I thank God for how He has been using me in the lives of many others. I was in Accra three weeks ago on the 9th and 10th of June to teach and preach in the First Acts Church. The pastor asked me to come and teach his people to understand salvation better. God used me in a wonderful way in those two days. All of the people I taught on Saturday lifted up their hands, asking that Jesus will save them. Again on Sunday the 10th, I preached on salvation and almost every hand went up, with the exception of those who were there on Saturday, asking our Savior to save them!

Also, there is a young man named Bernard that I have been discipling for months. Bernard called me after our Bible study yesterday, and these are the questions he asked me: When can you come and preach the gospel to my mother? When do you start church service on Sundays? He said he is going to start coming to our church from this coming Sunday. The wonderful thing in the story is that Bernard is a Sunday School teacher in a Presbyterian church. For him to make this decision tells me that God is involved in our work here at Fiapre, Sunyani! I am thankful that God has chosen to use a sinner like me.

- Pray for Bernard to grow in the Lord
- Please be in prayer for our plans to start a Christian School where children will be pointed to God.
- Pray for Sosuanso church to grow for God's glory and our church as well.
- Pray for more laborers.
- Pray for wisdom for me and Brother Bismarck Oduro that God will use us in these two churches.
