I am so thankful to the Almighty God for His faithfulness to my family and ministry. My family and ministry are doing great with the exception of my wife, who lost her mother on 7th May 2017. God has been good to the family through this difficult time. God has blessed me a lot in the area of soul winning and training others to preach the gospel. Pastor Mike Williams invited me to teach his people how to win souls in our local language. I was so encouraged of the progress at the lakeside. It has always been a privilege for me to serve people especially in the area of the gospel and teaching others to do the same. I had many people testifying that the meetings were blessings to them in Pastor Mike's churches. I was so encouraged that older men and women were excited about the lesson. Each day before I continued the lesson, I did review through the questions. It was a blessing how these older people could remember what was taught to them. It tells me that God was involved in the program and that He is growing me in the area of teaching. It was exciting hearing and enjoying Dominic, one of my own converts present the gospel so clear last Saturday. I am so proud of what God is doing through me and the members in our church.

- Please be in prayer for my wife's family that there will be peace after the funeral.
- Pray that God will revive myself, my family and the church to keep going.
- Pray for more laborers.
- Pray for wisdom to help my family and the church.
