Our ministry has recently trained four soul winners. We have eleven soul winners now in our church. I had an opportunity to witness to Linda this past Thursday, Linda is the lady I mentioned about in last month's updates that she interrupted a conversation I was having with three of my converts to asked for a favor from one of them, and later showed interest in our church. She trusted Christ and promised to start coming to our church this coming Sunday. Manasseh goes to one of the universities in Fiapre. I witnessed to him, and he trusted Jesus Christ. I went back this past Saturday to visit him, and he started telling me how, he has been trying to teach his friends to realize the truth of salvation. He told me that he is planning to help me set up a schedule to go to the university and teach the gospel. Pray that God will continue to use Manasseh and open doors for us to preach and teach the gospel to others at the university and that others will be saved through his effort and zeal. Pray also that the Lord of the harvest will send forth more laborers. Thank you for your support to my ministry here in Ghana.
