I am thankful to God for my family and ministry. I have seen a lot of growth in my own life. I made a decision during the pastors and workers conference in August to grow myself and the church in the area of disciples. I believe that God heard my prayer and He is answering my prayer. I had people I was discipling before but it wasn't that serious to me as it is now. Right now I have people I meet with on a weekly basis to do Bible studies. I have two different Bible studies in-between Sunday morning and Sunday night services. I was so glad this Sunday when I got to Anane Samuel's house; he had three different people with him waiting on me. I believe all three got saved on that day. The good news is that they all requested that I come back again. Anane has been a member of our church little over one year. At exactly 3pm on that same day after I am done with Anane is another group from a charismatic church who are also getting saved and seeking to know more. So far I believe five people are saved from that group. I also have four different Bible studies on every Tuesday. One is with Daniel, another one with Rashid and his friend, also with Isaac and his brother Ata and finally, our Bible studies at Sosuanso where we are planning to start a new church. I also have Bible studies and soul winning on Thursdays, Fridays and Saturdays as well. What I am so excited about is the fact that I am not doing this alone. The church members have also seen what I am doing and some of them have chosen to disciple others. My wife has two ladies she working on right now, Elizabeth and Clementina. Bismarck is also working about four or more people, Victoria is working on Barikisu Fuseini etc. I am working on discipleship lesson to teach on Wednesday night Bible studies to get more people involve in discipling others.

Please pray with us that God will send us laborers for the harvest.

Pray that God will lead us to receptive and influential people.

Pray that God will release funds for us towards our building project.

We are still working on starting Sunday services at Sosuanso, pray that God's will be done.
