My soul-winning partner and I witnessed to Linda a few days ago. She trusted Christ and wished to have come to her church, but her father would not allow it. Linda said to me, 'I am ready to study with you anytime you come until I can make my own decision.' We have been studying with Linda and pointing out the truth to her. I am thankful to God for her understanding. Twumasi has been a member of our church for almost a year. He found a job that compelled him to quit church because he had to work on Sundays. Recently, Twumasi's father came to me saying, 'My son has not been feeling comfortable working on Sundays. He told me that he wants to stop the job so that he can come to church.' I am thankful that God is working in his heart. I recently ended on Wednesday nights teaching on music. I have had a lot of testimonies from some of our church members. Some also came to me with pen drives and memory cards for good music. I am looking forward to starting a new series on salvation starting next week. Pray for my wife; she is expecting a baby. [That baby, David Kwabena Aning, was born on September 15.] Pray for new converts in our church to grow in grace. Pray for God to lead us to influential people.
