I thank the almighty God for His faithfulness to my family. We are all doing well. It is very encouraging to see my family always ready to serve our Master. Also, I want to say a very big thank you to CORE Missions and Faith Way Baptist for your wonderful love for our Master Jesus Christ. His love I believe is what moves you to support us. We pray for you all that your labor will not be in vain.

I am also thankful to the Lord for the ministry He led us to start at Sosuanso. So far we have had two people who do not attend any church. Those two and others suggested that we start Sunday services so that they can attend church. This is not common in Ghana; people will not even attend your Bible study because they think you will eventually ask them to join your church. What makes this story unique is the Bible study we have with them every week. They would not go to church and those who already have church, are always confused about what is taught in the church. I thank God for opening their eyes to see the truth and wanting to stay with the truth. For this reason, we are planning to start Sunday services soon.

Two weeks ago, I went out with Daniel my son. On our way back home, I saw a young man washing his clothes. I was moved to preach the gospel to Akwasi Tawiah. Since Akwasi was busy we scheduled to meet after he had finished the job. The next day I gave him a call and we ended up meeting in his house. I preached the gospel to him and he trusted Christ excitedly. Two days after, I had another appointment with two ladies and some teenagers in their house also. Before I went to these new people, I passed by Tawiah's house to check on the discipleship booklet I left with him. When I got there he had finished the booklet already. After I finished checking the booklet, I asked him to accompany me. He quickly ran to his room, picked up his shirt and was ready to go. After witnessing to Helina, Faustina and the 3 other boys, Tawiah jumped in to ask them good questions to make sure that they understood the message. The sad thing is that Tawiah had to go back to school but I scheduled to disciple him through Whats app. I thank God for Tawiah's salvation.

Sodzi Godfred has been a faithful member of our church for almost two years. Recently he started missing church often. I sent somebody to his house to check on him but he wouldn't come. Finally, I went to his house myself to check on Godfred. After talking to him for a while, he promised to start coming. Since that day he has been faithful to church services. Godfred was the next person I planned to take out soul winning with me. This Saturday we encountered a heavy downpour and to my surprise, Godfred showed up in the rain to go out soul winning with us. I thank God for working in Godfred's life.
