I want to thank God for his mercy and love towards our ministry in Foase. I am glad that God is helping us build a building where we can have a service there. I am glad that we have started three home Bible studies in three houses of our church members. Many people are getting saved and are excited about God. We are hoping to start school preaching method where we will go to schools to give the Gospel to those students. We want to start car or tro-tro preaching in the village. Pray for the above visions for it to be fulfilled by God. A recent convert I have met is Thomas. I met him in his house in Foase, and I approached him with the Gospel, and he got saved. He promised to come to church, and he did, and since that time, he has been faithful to our church. He has helped us in one of our work days. Thank God for Thomas. One of my church members who is growing in the Lord is Godfred Hian Vermbert. He is very faithful to church. He always works and cleans the church on Sundays. He arranges chairs and curtains for church service. He has finished the discipleship lesson series.
