God has been good to Focus Ministry and we are focused to continue to serve God beyond measure. My family and I are doing well by the grace of God.

Throughout this month and my soul winning journey I helped many people to get saved and one of them is called Richard Eshun who got saved in his house on one Saturday who promised to join our church and he has come with his wife and 1 child. He has now being committed to our church. Thank God.

Pray for our church building to be completed, Pray for our new mission house, Christian School, special villege to village outreach.
