To C.O.R.E. Missions:

Brethren, I am grateful to God for your lives and ministry. I ask God everyday to bless your hands and hearts. To have your ministries prosper, and keep your families safe. We pray for your church and also for where you live. We ask that you pray for me, as I am the coordinator for the missionary project, "Victory Roads" in Villa Clara (Central Cuba). Recently our church and communities have been destroyed by Hurricane Irma. We ask that you pray for us so we could have the power to encourage people. There were a lot of Christians that were left without homes and churches. Please pray that we are able to reach all the brethren with the hope of our Lord Jesus Christ. Philippians 4:21 | Thessalonians 1:2-3
