Dear brothers, it is a pleasure to tell you about the rich blessings of God through the work of the Baptist Freedom Church during the month of February. We are reformulating the youth group, and we are giving a lot of emphasis to the service and involvement in the church, as a result of this, 3 new ministries carried out by young people have been created: church cleaning, visitation and follow-up, and evangelization. With my wife, we continue with marriage counseling every day Monday, Tuesday, Wednesday and Friday with 4 marriages of the church. As a church, we distributed 1,000 invitations to people from the sector, and in evangelism, 7 received Christ. Six received Christ in meetings. It was a very blessed month. We also carried out the youth camp where 135 young people came, of whom 6 received Christ, 15 made a decision to serve in the church and 18 were enrolled in the Pastoral and Missionary Training Center (Chilean Baptist Seminary). We also carried out an activity of vacation Bible school for children where God blessed us in the 3 nights with these decisions: in total about 14 children and 6 adults. I want you to pray especially for some needs of the church: a. A bigger place. Currently we have an average attendance Sunday morning over 70, in the afternoon from 60 to 65, and Thursdays over 55, and the local has capacity for 48-50 maximum. Your prayers for God to provide the resources for a larger facility. b. For more male workers in the church c. For the families of the church, especially marriages d. For my wife and for me, we are in times of saving and looking for a house for the family. and. For our plans to have our first son. Finally, I would like to thank you for your constant prayers, brothers and sisters, for us. They are of great spiritual help for our lives. I say goodbye to you, deeply grateful to God for you. I hope to hear soon the great things He is doing in you. God bless you richly.
