Dear brothers, It is a pleasure for us to greet you. The month of October we were blessed to celebrate our anniversary. The history of our church began in 1982. A group of families that were sent to the Mezquital housing complex, which the Government of Guatemala gave to the families that had been affected by the 1976 earthquake, decided to start meetings in the home of one of these families. The first service was carried out in the month of May of that year, at the home of Brother Rolando Álvarez. In the year 2000 they began to make preparations for the organization of Elohim Baptist Church. This year we celebrated the XVI anniversary, and the invited preacher was Pastor Rolando Álvarez who is working in the New Life Baptist Church of Quetzaltenango, Guatemala. It was a great blessing to have visitors and people delivering their testimony to Christ. Thank you very much for your prayers and the financial help that they send us every month It has been very helpful for our family. May God reward you for such a noble gesture.
