Richard Anane is my new convert, and he is my new convert, and he is a new graduate from Atwoma Kwanwoma Senior High. Several weeks ago, I saw him playing table tennis with his friends. I tried to stop them so that they could hear the Gospel; however, all of his friends ran away, but Richard stayed. He was eager to hear my message. He visited our church the following Sunday. Jannet Appiah is one of the most faithful ladies in our ministry. She has brought almost all of her family to our church, and, also, she is usually the first person to church. She visits the shut-in members and she goes soul winning with us. Bless God for her. Our church has started street preaching, and it has resulted in a lot of souls saved. It makes ministry very exciting. Thank God for this ministry.
