Praise and glory be to the Most High God. I want to thank God for this ministry.

I met Pastor Michael Acheampong about a year ago. However, he came to me recently asking me to help him pay the school fees for one of his children. As he spoke, something told me, "This man needs Jesus!" So I told him, "I believe you need this money urgently." He said, "Yes." I responded, "I know of something that is of greater urgency than this!" I took advantage of that opportunity to witness to him the Gospel, and he received Christ that day. Bless God for that! He has visited our church once since then and wants to learn more.

Michael Karikari is one of our teenagers who has a passion for the work of the Lord. He comes to soul winning on Saturday by 6 a.m. and visits with me until the evening. He also brings his brother every Sunday morning for the church clean up. Bless God for him.

Our church is teaching 2 Corinthians and the church members are very excited, because it has built their faith very strong, and then they try to convince their neighbors to come and hear the truth they have gotten. Several Sundays ago after church, Godfred was trying to witness to his neighbor, but the guy was arguing with him. So Godfred called me to witness to his neighbor. His neighbor ended up getting saved!
