We are praying for more souls to be saved. Two weeks ago Mr. Acheamong Akwasi received Christ as His Saviour at Kotwi near Trede. He is a mason, and we met him while he was working. When we drew his attention, he thought we were Jehovah's Witnesses. With this thought, he told us he was working. But when he realized that we were Baptist, he asked us, "What do you want to say?" We preached to him the Gospel, and he got saved and visited our church the following Sunday. Bless God for him. I met Agnes Owusu at Trede Market. She is a hair dresser. I preached to her the Gospel of Jesus Christ, and she got saved. She visited our church last week. I pray she will come always. Janet Appiah is the most grateful church member. She started soul winning and visitation. She has brought all her house to the church, and her kids are very helpful to the church. Bless God for her.
