The great joy that we have is awesome. I have the privilege to preach in vehicles that travels some miles and this ministry has been challenging to me. However, we must fight until the final breath. It is teaching me that the law is killing people and sending them to Hell. But I try to win some to Christ every time I get this opportunity. I met Samuel Sarpong about two weeks ago. He was gambling with some guys. I called all of them, and they all scattered except for Samuel. He stayed to listen to my preaching. He received Christ, and the happiest thing is that he decided to follow the Lord. Joana Asantewaa is one of the women growing in grace in my church. She brings all of her children to our church. However, her husband does not come every Sunday. We are working on him.
