Dear Brothers & Sisters in Christ,

I'm so glad to write to you. I'm so excited with our new mission church that we started last year in the place called Marchan Dessaline. This place has a lot of people and many of them never hear the truth of the gospel or the plan of salvation. This past few weeks we have 9 saved in that new mission work. We are praying that the Lord will provide us a property there, right now we do our services in the house of our church member.

Our first church is continually growing in number and our the services is always full, last month we had 22 people received Christ as their personal savior and 11 obey the Lord in Water baptism.

We have some of members got sick please pray for their healing.

Thank so much for your prayers and financial assistance. May God bless you.

Pastor Obed Cadestin
