Our Lord is a strong tower for those who put their trust in Him. Tappita is a big city, so we divided ourselves into four teams with the same agenda. We did film shows and soul winning. While we were there, team B happened knock on the door of Chief Alusine Bamba, who was rude at first but after listening to them he suddenly fell to the ground and asked for Christ's forgiveness. Today he and his household have been frequent in church services and have brought his brother Omaru Bamba to service last week.
