Beloved Brethren,

My personal thanks, and from our missions committee. Thank you for the priceless help that you are bringing. I want to share with you some of my ministry work. I am the secretary of our missions committee, Professor of Missions at our Baptist Seminar in Havana, and Director of our "We Celebrate Recovery" at our church. I am also a deacon, counselor, leader at one of our house churches, and Sunday School teacher. In the next few letters, I plan on giving specific details about the different work. I also make the time to share the gospel, and disciple different people. I pray that we continue contact. In the love of Christ, Emigdio Gonzalez Reloba.
