Dear brethren, greetings and blessings. My family and I are grateful for the help that we receive from your ministry. With it, we are able to do the work that God has called us to do more effectively. I am a Pastor, and I serve alongside my family in the city of Cienfuegos. I am in charge of the missionary convention in my province. God has permitted us to expand His work. This time period from August to October, God has allowed us to start two new house churches, and baptize four new teenagers. The Lord has allowed us to gather supplies for the families affected by the hurricane. This has given us the opportunity to share the Gospel to new people. Many people were looking and needed something spiritual in their lives. I ask in prayer for the Bible Seminar in the city that we have to train new missionaries. With the love of Christ, Philippians 4:5
