Greetings Dear Brothers and Sisters,

God bless you, we hope that at the time of you reading our report all is going well. We are always so grateful for your partnership in the ministry. Unfortunately, my wife's health has not improved despite the treatment she has received, and we are currently unable to serve in our mission.

Therefore, we have been assisting our son, Pastor Daniel Pozo, preaching and supporting the work of the church. We have also been overseeing the restoration of our building in Gayos, in preparation for it's 100th anniversary. Please continue praying for my wife and the great work before us. Once again, thank you so much for your prayers, your generous gifts of love, and your remembrance of us.
