Letter to sponsor. Please include any personal or ministry praises, any special prayer requests, as well as any advances in your ministry.

I would like to say once again that I truly appreciate the support you all are giving to the Lord's ministry being done through us here in Cape Verde. It has been precious and crucial to what is being achieved here. Thank you from the bottom of my heart.

Please continue praying for me, my wife Marlene, and my two dear daughters as we continue to do the work that Christ has presented us to do here in Cape Verde.

The Lord had given me a privilege this past month to travel to Portugal to meet up with other members of the church body who are actively invested in military ministry. I was profoundly blessed by the testimonies of various brothers and sisters and joyful that I too was able to present the work you all are supporting here in Cape Verde. I am also excited to share that I commenced a chaplaincy course of the "International Association of Evangelical Chaplains" in Portugal, so that I may be more apt and able to do the will of the Lord.

I would also like to add, my dear brethren, that my current state of affairs are different than it had been in the past year. One of the major changes was that it is not just me, Marlene, and Melanie anymore; God blessed me with the gift of another daughter, Giovanna, but with that gift comes many more responsibilities, expenses, and necessities, as you all can imagine. Circumstances have been very tight in recent times, especially with the dollar devaluation, but I thank the Lord for always performing a miracle for me.

Thank you kindly for the attention and the graciousness.
