Dear brothers: God bless you. During the month of December, we have visited the houses around the new premises of the church, it has been a blessing. Many of the people in this place work and are not at home early, but thank God some have been available to hear the gospel. There are several children who are accompanying us and 3 of them received Christ as their Savior during the Sunday service. What a blessing!

We had a good time at Christmas. We went to the houses of the brothers to sing Christmas carols; it was beautiful. We also had our Christmas lunch where the children and young people received a gift from the church. Pray for the gospel to continue spreading and for God to open more doors for us during evangelism, and for people to be saved, and for brothers to make decisions to fulfill the great commission.

Thank you for your prayers and financial help, which help us to continue sharing in this beautiful place that God has placed us. Prayer requests: 1. Wisdom and direction of God. 2. Faithful workers. 3. Land of the church, that we have a part and we are still missing. Atte. Pastor Luis Gamarra Mayan Baptist Church La Entrada, Copan, Honduras, C.A.
