I thank Jesus for His peace in my heart.

The month of July was very tough for us, but we made it in Jesus' name. We held film shows in four locations and our soul winners did their best. Those who professed Christ as Lord were baptized and put in three different classes to learn the soul winning strategy. One of the newly converted men brought his father and mother to church last Sunday and they also received Christ. The women's department is now reaching the mother while the husband is with us.
