Dear brothers, it is a pleasure to thank you for the financial support you give for the ministry here in Guatemala. We want you to know that we continue to work in house-to-house personal evangelism, and it is the young people who most help us with this ministry. We ask for your support in prayer for a place called Mouth of the Mountain. We have determined to do evangelism in that place with the goal of building a new church in this place. It is located half an hour from where our church is located.
