Dear Brothers in Christ, it is a blessing to greet you, to bring you up to date with what God is doing in Guatemala through the church, with the help of God and the support you give us. We want to tell you that in our group of soul winners, new members have been added. We are working on a program on Saturday afternoons. We have also begun with a project to help. Once a month we will go to the emergency department of one of the national hospitals to distribute leaflets and give back to the people who are there because many of them stay to sleep on the street. We will make these visits at nine o'clock at night. We have also had the opportunity to evangelize through the services of young people on Saturday. More than a dozen of them have visited us. I want to say that August was a difficult month for us as a family and as a church. Unfortunately my mother-in-law passed away after dealing with cancer and my wife was very sad. We also buried a brother very dear and faithful, his name was Jaime Córdoba. We ask your prayers for: the group of soul winners. for the sadness of my wife. for the brother's family who left us. for my family, Ruth, Jeankarlo, Jessica, and Abner, so that God may strengthen our lives and help us continue to serve in His work. Dear brothers, thank you for your financial support.
