Good afternoon! I pray that the Lord is pouring out His richest and most abundant blessings in your lives and ministry. I want to tell you that in the month of December we had several activities and among them the one that stands out most is the youth camp, in which we participated as counselors with my wife. I also had the opportunity to be a speaker; more than a hundred young people were there and about ten young men reconciled with the Lord. About five received Christ as their savior; and more than 50 consecrated their lives to the service of the Lord with the vision of serving in the work of our Lord some day full time. I always appreciate the financial support that you send us every month. It is a great blessing and support for our ministry, having this support allows us to serve with more dedication, and more joy; since it allows us to concentrate more on the ministry and releases much of the economic burdens that we have. I ask for your prayers for: the new converts. for the decisions that were made in the youth camp. by the plans that we have for the following year. for the brothers who win souls in our church.
