Good morning brothers, may God be with you always. It is a pleasure to write you, and to thank you for such a valuable help. It is a great blessing for our ministry here in Guatemala. We are excited for the work that the Lord allows us to carry out.

The month of July was very busy. Our young people had the opportunity to make two trips with the purpose of training for evangelism. We had two youth groups from two other churches in our Baptist fellowship visit us. They came to share their experience while doing the work of the Lord.

We have seen the hand of God work in the Boca del Monte (Mouth of the Mountain). It's a place located 30 minutes from our church. There, we have a group of 18 people who are being disciplined. We are teaching them to do personal evangelism in their community. With the help of the Lord, I hope we can fully establish a new work in that place next year. We ask that you pray for these people. On Sundays, we want to bring them to the church so they can congregare and learn. We want to use our small bus to bring them. Right now it needs repairs. The brakes and the front axle are damaged. We need to invest about $1200 to repair it.

I ask that you pray for our group of soul winners. They go every Saturday to share the gospel in our community. We are currently training some new converts for this work. May the Lord bless you and multiply all that you do.
