Dear brethren, I want to thank God for each and every one of your lives. Thank you for having the desire to do good by helping our missionary ministry. Thank you for the economic help that has facilitated our complete dedication to the missionary field. This month we have baptized 14 new believers and have started 3 new works. We depend on two Missionary training centers.

We ask that you please continue with your prayers, we really need them. There are still a lot of places that have yet to be reached, and we want to start planting in those locations as well.
