Praise the Lord for the work of Obuasi! The Lord has been so gracious to us. This month, I attended a program at Fundamental Baptist Church International in Kumasi, to learn how to organize Bible Clubs to win children for Christ. When I introduced this to my church, the members were very enthusiastic. They promised to help me to start one at Kwabenakwa and Asonkare, which will help the church to grow larger. I hope it will bring their parents to church.

Mr. John Carr (who is helping our Sunday School Class) has celebrated his 70th birthday. His testimony on how far he has come and what he has gone through challenged my people and myself that if we work hard, we can make a difference. So I used this opportunity to encourage my people to intensify our soul-winning so that we can bring more souls to Christ this year.
