Praise the Lord! Hallelujah! Early this month, Isaac Ofori Among invited me to go and pray for his father, who was sick and in the hospital. Isaac is my former church member who now resides in Kumasi. His father, King Ofori, is the chief of our town. The arrangement to meet him did not go well. The car which was supposed to pick me up did not come. But I prayed for him in my house. A week later, Isaac came up to me and informed me that his father had been released from the hospital, and the father was requesting that I come and preach the Gospel to him. When I got to Isaac's father's house, the chief was ready to listen to the Gospel. I preached to him the Gospel, and he humbly accepted Jesus Christ as Saviour. I am now discipling him. I need your prayers for him. He has never been to church before. Thank you.
