God is good, all the time. I met a man a soul-winning he was sick and attending catholic church. When I started preaching I realised he wasnt paying attention to the message. In order to stop me he said he was hungry and want to eat. So I hung around for him to finish his food, then I went back and continue the preaching, this time he paid attention until he accepted christ as his lord and personal saviour. I visited him the following day because he promised to come to church when he recover, when I went I was told he was sent to the hospital, I went and prayed for him and the next day I was told the man has passed away. Thank God he was saved.

This month I preached to 35 people and 30 accepted Christ as their personal Saviour. please one of our church members Mary Teboah was sick and need your prayer support. please remember her in your prayer that the Lord sustained her life.
Thank you.
