Brothers, I just want to start off by saying, we were not able to do as much work this month because of the strong rains and flooding. Our town and church was in the worst part of the flooding. Many homes and possessions were lost. Despite the storms we were able to focus on discipling our new converts, on the children's ministry, and our church family. Our family is very grateful to God and you for the support. Our prayer is that God continued to bless you abundantly.
