We give our Lord all the praise for what He is doing in work here. I have two young men who are pastors working with me in the ministry here. The first one is Brother Ben Abdallah, a muslim convert. Brother Jeremiah, a refugee from Central African Republic, is the second. I pray that the Lord will find some form of financial support for them since we are unable to assist them financially considering the size of the church. We number an average size of 30 members and 20 children. We also have a huge problem sitting space for our Sunday school Kids. They meet under trees which when it rains there is no place to occupy them.
Thanks for prayer support.
