Dear Pastor and beloved Church of the Lord, our infinite gratitude for your fidelity and love for the missionary work in this part of the world: Chile for Christ Jesus. Your financial support and untiring prayers are not in vain, the Lord will reward you richly, always encouraging you to continue participating without fainting, because as we know in due time we will reap what we sow together, so always forward without fainting.

We participated in the conference of winter holidays called "I am debtor" where we support very actively through the presence of brothers of different churches. We left very excited to continue serving the Lord. Also with us in the church Philip Moore, Pastor of Brother Jaime, a tremendous man of God was a blessing for us all. God is also adding people and families to his church and blessing the work done together with you. Please pray: Erick, Marcela (wife), Carolina (daughter) now congregating with us. Also by Angela Catalina, a young woman with a desire to grow and to cling to the things of God. REQUESTS: • Our raising of economic sustenance • For an own place Thank you very much for everything.
