Dear sponsor,

I would like to thank God for all the privileges He has given me to serve Him in the ministry and for the great things He has done. May God in His grace, and His love be with you always and in all that you do. It is an honor, my friend, for me to write this letter to share to you what God has been doing in the ministry. God has placed in my heart to have a 25-day of prayer. This month, we had the privilege to preach to 37 people and we have 5 lined up for baptism. We have a revival coming up for the 20th of August. Please pray for our activities. I have five members that want to get married. It is not easy for them, because their future husbands are not saved. Please pray for them. Please pray that God will provide benches for our church. God will provide by putting in the hands of the Christians that is needed. Please pray for the floor of the church. Thank you so much for your great help to the ministry. It is a great blessing to my family, and I am praying for you also. May God bless you abundantly.
