I am glad to see people on their sick bed receiving salvation. Every Wednesday, I go to the hospital to preach the Gospel to those who are in admission, in various wards, and to incoming patients. Yesterday, from bed-to-bed in Pramso Hospital, I was able to preached to 8 sick people. I met Kwaku Duah at a carpentry shop and he gladly received Christ. Since 5 July, he has been coming to church. He has also promised to come for the pastors' conference in August being hosted by FBCI in Kumasi. Gideon Awiah is growing in the Lord. He loves the Sunday school teaching, and is present almost every week. He has also been contributing positively by asking good questions and also giving reasonable answers to every question I ask.
