I met George Nkrumah at Pramso Hospital. I spoke to him the salvation message, and he trusted Christ. Three days later, I called his phone and discovered that he had been discharged from the hospital. I went to his house at Esreso, and gave him a salvation booklet to fill. [This is a detailed Gospel tract from FBCI Kumasi.] He came to church recently with the booklet completely filled out.

Gideon Awuah is growing in the Lord. He asks great questions in our Bible studies. He is almost always present at our church services. He has an interest in teaching.

I have decided to do three days revival from Wednesday to Friday, 27th to 29th January 2016. In the daytime, we shall do intensive soul winning. In the evening from 7 p.m. - 9 p.m., we will hold church services. The main purpose is to increase membership.

Pray for more workers and my family especially my wife who is sick from malaria. She was admitted to the hospital for three days, but now is recovering.
