The name of the recent convert is Nana Yeboah. I met him last Friday morning at home. After speaking to him, he trusted Jesus Christ. He came to the evening Bible studies with his wife and two children and promised to come to church the following Sunday. I also met five boys by the names of Kwame, Nana Kwaku, Yaw Antwi, Akwesi, and Kwaku Prince. They trusted Jesus Christ and come to church on the next Sunday as visitors and promised to come again. I have started new prayers and Bible studies at Aputuogya. We met last Thursday at 7 p.m. in the evening. We were five in number and I hope it will grow. Pray for me for more wisdom, more workers, and also for my family for good health.
